IMPORTANT FROM TENNESSEE.

Surprise and Capture of Another Rebel Post.

A NUMBER OF REBELS TAKEN PRISONERS.

Horses, Mules, Medical Stores, &c., Secured.

Rumored Shooting of Bragg by Breckinridge.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Monday April, 27.

A part of Gen. GREEN CLAY SMITH's brigade, consisting of 250 cavaly, commanded by Col. WATKINS of the Sixth Kentucky, it is reported, this morning made a dash upon the rebel camp of the First Texas Legion, eight miles South of Frankin, on Carter's Creek Pike, and captured 128 rebels, including three Captains, five Lieutenants, the same number of horses, fifty mules, one ambulance loaded with medical stores, and burned eight wagons and the arms of the rebels. Col. BROOKS, commanding the rebel camp, was captured, but subsequently escaped. The rebels formed a part of Gen. WHITFIELD's brigade. The latter is a Tennesseean, and a native of Franklin, who acquired some notoriety in Kansas a few years since. Five rebels were mortally wounded. There were no casualties on our side. The prisoners arrived here to-night.

Thirty-three hundred citizens, male and female, have taken the oath, giving bond to Gen. MITCHELL.

Capt. C. L. S. MEDILL, of the Twenty-first Illinois, Judge-Advocate in the trial of the Anderson treop, died suddenly to-day, of pneumonia, at the St. Cloud Hotel.

A startling rumor is current to-night that Gen. BRAGG was shot and instantly killed by Gen. BRECKINRIDGE, at Tullahoma, yesterday.

A small party of rebels attacked the Louisville train on its passage from this city to-day. The rebels killed two prisoners. No damage was done to the track.

LOUISVILLE, Monday, April 27.

The Nashville cars arrived three hours behind time. A guard on the cars dispersed the rebels, killing three and wounding three. Three miles north of Franklin, two sick Union soldiers, two passengers and a drummer boy were wounded, the latter probably mertally, and left at Bowling Green.

The military authorities have been arresting, for the past three days, members of an association for promoting the rebel cause and procuring desertions from the Union army.

During the sale of a lot of negroes at the Courthouse this morning, the Provost-Marshal notified the buyers that four were free under the President's Proclamation. They nevertheless went on, when the matter of the four contrabands was turned over to the District Judge, who will take measures to annul the sale.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

A Visit from Distinguished Personages.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Monday, April 27.

Secretary SEWARD and the Prussian and Swedish Ministers, with others, paid a visit to the Headquarters of the Army of the Potomac to-day. Several ladies accompanied them.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Monday, April 27.

The distinguished visitors mentioned in yesterday's dispatches witnessed a review of a considerable body of troops, to-day, and subsequently departed for Washington.

Richmond papers of this morning admit the loss of five Napoleon guns, and 140 men, on the Nansemond. All was quiet there, at the last advices.

A Fredericksburgh correspondent writes that his impression is confirmed that our army is withdrawing from the line of the Rappahannock.

The weather, to-day, is warm and pleasant. The roads are improving.

Important Arrest—A Telegraph Working across the Rappahannock—A Rebel Soldier tries to Desert.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, April 26, 1963.

All remains quiet yet on the Rappahannock, and the rebels are quite troubled about this condition of affairs. The leaks are gradually being stopped. Yesterday an important arrest was made in Falmouth. A few days ago a telegraph wire was discovered on the river bank; the finder touched it and received a slight shock; the fact was reported, and upon examination the important discovery was made that one end end of the line was within the enemy's lines, and the other in a house at Falmouth. The operator—a rebel—was arrested and is now in custody. Yesterday a rebel soldier attempted to come into our lines by swimming the river. When about half-way across he became exhausted, and the current swept him back to Dixie, where he was seized, and he will probably be shot

Capt. HANLEY, of the Ninth New-York cavalry, succeeded a few days ago in wiping out an old score his command had against the rebs. Last Fall the enemy captured Gen. STAHL's commissary train at Haymarket, and also the guard of twenty-three men, most of whom were members of Capt. HANLEY's company. A few days ago Capt. H. charged into Warrenton at the head of his squadron, killing a lieutennnt, sergeant and private of a rebel force in the town. The lieutenant commanded the party which captured Capt. H.'s men last Fall.

Last night the enemy doubled their pickets on the river. P.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Coal for the Gunboats on the Nansemond—More Skirmishing Reported—All Quiet at Yorktown.

FORTRESS MONROE, Saturday, April 25.

The navy dispatch boat Philadelphia was sent from here to-day, for the navy flotilla on the Nansemond, with a supply of coal, which will make their leaving the river unnecessary.

Rumors have reached us that our pickets were driven in on the Nansemond this forenoon, and there are indications of more skirmishing in that direction.

Maj.-Gen. DIX, with three of his Staff, left at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the Nansemond River.

Eighty-five patients arrived this evening on the steamboat City of Hudson, Capt. MARTIN, from Suffolk, and were transported to Dr. GILBERT's Hampton Hospital. They were mostly sick, though some are wounded.

YORKTOWN, Saturday, April 25.

There is no news at all here. Yesterday GEO. W. JOHNSON, a private of the Fourth Delaware regiment, stabbed a colored man named JAMES HOLLAND, at Gloucester Point. JOHNSON is arrested. The negro died immediately.

All Quiet on the Nansemond.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 27.

The latest intelligence received here is up to yesterday noon, when all was quiet on the Nansemond, above and below Suffolk.

Refugees report that the recent attack on Suffolk was in the character of a grand foraging expedition. There is the best understanding between our land and naval forces in that direction.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

Large Sales of Government Bonds Abroad.

A COMPLAINT FROM THE MEXICAN MINISTER.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 27.

GOVERNMENT BONDS ABROAD.

At the instance of foreign banks, agents, about four weeks ago, were sent to Europe to make sales of our bonds authorized to be issued by the last Congress. The late steamer brought news that a large sum will soon be placed to Government credit in Hamburg, London and Paris. ROBERT J. WALKER is understood to have sailed on the 8th inst., fully empowered to perfect the arrangements initiated here by German agents in March.

THE RICHMOND FORTIFICATIONS.

The Richmond Examiner, of the 22d, contains an advertisement for five thousand laborers, slave, free and white, to work on the Richmond fortifications.

FRIENDS OF REBEL PRISONERS.

The blockade runners, smugglers and spies cooped up in the Old Capitol Prison are not without friends. In behalf of the prisoners, and their $300,000 worth of property in the Detective Department's possession, they proposed to its Chief a very generous bribery for the release of a crowd. Drawn on by craft, they were induced to make a written list of names of those they wanted to buy out of the Government's custody, with the price they would pay for each, ranging from $300 to $2,000. When their betrayal was ripe, the evidence of their foolish crime was placed in the hands of the District-Attorney, and the salaried places that knew them will soon know them no more.

A COMPLAINT FROM THE MEXICAN MINISTER.

Mr. ROMERO, the Mexican Minister, had an interview to-day with the President, during which he complained of the unfriendly treatment his country had received in the refusal of permits to ship munitions of war from New-York for Mexican account, while the French were suffered to buy freely in that City, St. Louis and elsewhere.

THE SALE OF FIVE-TWENTIES.

The sale of five-twenties by JAY, COOK & Co., for the past four days, footed up over ten millions, thus: On Thursday, two million two hundred and forty-three thousand seven hundred; on Friday, one million two hundred and eighteen thousand three hundred and fifty; on Saturday, four million two hundred and sixty-two thousand nine hundred and fifty; to-day, up to 5 P. M., two million five hundred thousand. The Treasury Department is yet some ten days behindhand in deliveries on orders. The popularity of the loan is the principal cause of the delay, for small orders from country people of slender means for $50 and $100 are immense in number.

A REBEL ATTACK ON GEN. M'CLELLAN.

The Richmond Whig, of the 21st, received at this Bureau, contains a savage attack on Gen. MCCLELLAN, in asserting in substance that all the while the rebels were praising him as the ablest General we had, they believed him to be a weak commander. The Whig closes the article as follows:

"How fortunate for us, that he was chosen chief of the Yankee army. With the immense numbers at his command, an officer of truth, courage, enterprise and daring would have pushed us severely."

The Whig also has the following:

"Provisions in the Country.—E. H. COLEMAN, member of the Committee appointed at a meeting of the citizens of Amelia County, held in response to a recommendation accompanying the recent proclamation of the President, reports as the result of one week's investigation in that County, the following surplus provisions: 14,290 pounds bacon, 1,130 barrels of corn, 93 barrels of flour, 2,500 bales provender. This is an encouraging exhibit, and we have no doubt that investigations in other counties will develop results equally gratifying."

DEPORTATION OF INDIANS.

Indian Superintendent THOMPSON has completed arrangements in St. Louis for the deportation from Minnesota of the Winnebagoes and Sioux Indians, the removal to begin immediately. Those under sentence of death will be sent to one of the Southern seaboard forts—probably the Tortugas.

THE VISITORS TO THE ARMY.

The Secretary and Assistant-Secretary of State, the Swedish Minister, the Secretary of the Prussian Legation, with several ladies, visited Gen. HOOKER, at the army headquarters, yesterday, and left, to-day, for Fortress Monroe.

REGIMENTS OF CONVALESCENTS.

Two officers from each regiment in Washington have been detailed to organize regiments out of the convalescents in the hospitals around this city.

THE MARSHALSHIP OF THE NORTHERN DISTRICT.

EDWARD DODD, of Washington County, is the successor of A. B. DICKINSON in the Marshalship of the Northern District of New-York.

REVENUE DECISION.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in reply to an inquiry by an Assessor, whether the amount received by persons owning tracts of land for the privilege of allowing timbor to be cut therefrom should be returned by them as a portion of their income, says:

I have to say that the fact that the law regards timber standing as part of the realty cannot be urged as a sufficient reason for exemption from taxation of the income received from the sale of such timber. For, although timber, while standing, forms a part of the realty, yet, when sawed or cut down, it becomes personal property, and the receipts of the owner from such sales go to increase his annual income, and therefore, is just as much liable to the income tax as the income received from the sale of other products of the soil or mines. The farmer who keeps woodland for the express purpose of cutting and selling firewood, in greater or less quantities every year, would be requested to estimate his receipts from that source, as a part of his income, and the case is not different with the proprietor who sells to others the privilege of cutting and appropriating the timber on his land. The amount thus receivd for "stampage" must be treated as the income of the proprietor.

The Commissioner has also decided all promissory notes, whether under or over twenty dollars, to be subject to a stamp.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 27.

OFFICERS ORDERED BEFORE MILITARY COMMISSIONERS.

An official army order is published, to-day, naming eighteen officers who are required to appear before the Military Commission, and make satisfactory defence for absence without proper authority, or be dismissed. In this connection, another order appears giving the names of twenty-two officers previously advertised, saying they will not be dismissed, their defence being satisfactory. Such advertisements by the Government will be continued.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has returned from a visit to New-York, where he made arrangements to supply the Indian tribes with the usual amounts of blankets and other presents. The recent outbreak in Minnesota he regarded as a remnant of the former extended troubles in that State. Congress, at the late session, made an appropriation preliminary to a treaty with the Shoshones, who have lately been committing depredations. The Indian Bureau will at once take measures to secure their friendship. With the exceptions above mentioned, the Indians are peaceable. The treaty recently made with the Arapahoes, Cheyeunes, Comanches and others, binds them to protect the Overland Mail route running through their territory. The entire Cherokee country has nearly been recovered to loyalty, and all the refugees now in Southern Kansas will soon return to their homes from which the rebels drove them.

DISCHARGED SOLDIERS.

The two-years portion of the volunteers of the Tenth New-York regiment, Col. BENDIX, having been mustered out, have arrived from the Rappahannock.

THE BLOCKADING SERVICE.

Capture of two Prizes in the Gulf of Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 27.

The Navy Department has received a dispatch from Commodore HITCHCOCK, commanding the steamer Susquehannah, of April 18, which states that off Mobile, 17th inst., a sail was discovered to the southward and eastward, when we ran for her and came up to her. She did not show any colors, but when we ran in range of her, she hove to, on our firing a signal gun. We boarded her, and was informed by her commander that she was the rebel schooner Alabama, from Havana April 11, bound to Mobile; that she ran the blockade at Mobile March 24. The Commander also informed me that he had thrown overboard all her papers, colors, &c., by order of the owners. Her cargo consisted of wine, brandy, coffee, cheese, oil, soap, soda, drygoods, nails, cigars, &c. Her crew consisted of Capt. ALEXANDER NEWTON, born in Canada, a citizen of the United States, for eighteen years residing in Mobile, by profession a shipmaster. He served in the United States Navy, on board the frigate Columbia, unde Commodore Shubrick; Edward Newton, born in Canada, a citizen of the United States, residing at Mobile; Christofora Dobrilovick, an Austrian—he has an Austrian protection from the Consul at Mobile; Luca Botteri, an Austrian—he also has an Austrian protection; Antonio Dabovich—has also an Austrian protection; Jose Ignatio Rosa, Portuguese—has a certificate from the Portuguese Consul at Havana that he came to Matanzas in the rebel vessel Julia, and that he is at liberty to embark in any vessel he chooses; James McKay Cook, born in Canada—has lived in the United States about fifteen months. At the time of the capture, this ship had left the Western Gulf blockading squadron, and was on her passage to New-York.

The British schooner Tampico, of 70 tons, THOMAS COLSON, Master, and S. J. NAGLE, agent for the cargo, (both claiming to be British subjects,) was also captured. They acknowledge that their vessel had just run the blockade from Sabine Pass, with an assorted cargo and 112 bales of cotton.

On the 22d, Com. HITCHCOCK reports that he had arrived off Key West with the Alabama in tow.

Arrival of a Prize at New-York.

The rebel side-wheel steamship St. Johns, Acting Master J. R. BEERS, arrived at this port last night in four days from Port Royal. She was captured on the 18th April, by the United States steamer Stettin, commanded by Acting Master J. R. BEERS, while endeavouring to make a rebel port. She was from Nassau, with an assorted cargo, and was first sighted by the Stettin at daylight, off Cape Roman, endeavoring to run into Cape Roman Inlet. After giving chase for about two hours succeded in running her ashore at Cape Roman. The Captain and crew (with the exception of four firemen) escaped in boats. After twelve hours of hard and laborious work, and throwing overboard a portion of the cargo, (salt,) got her off. Acting Master BEERS then proceeded with the Stettin and prize to Port Royal. After coaling at that port, was ordered with a prize crew to Boston, and put into this port for a supply of coal.

The list of officers is as follows:

Acting (and Prize) Master, J. R. BEERS.
Acting Master G. P. LEE.
Acting Assistant Engineer J. B. EDWARDS.
Acting Third Assistant Engineer, D. H. LAWRENCE.

The Broadway Railway Controversy.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

The controversy that has arisen respecting a railroad in Broadway is interesting to all classes of our citizens, and, as one of those citizens, I have taken occasion to look into the several statutes of the State which have a bearing upon the questions at issue between the contestants.

The charter of the New-York and Harlem Railroad was granted by the Legislature of the State in the year 1831.

By the 16th section of this charter, the Corporation of the City of New-York were empowered to grant to this Company permission to construct single or double railroads or ways across or along any of the streets or avenues designated on the map of the City.

The 18th section of this act of incorporation authorized the Legislature at any time to alter, amend, modify or repeal the act.

In the year 1832 an act was passed amending the previous law of 1831. This statute of 1832 did not contain any reservation to the Legislature of a right to alter or repeal or modify it.

The first section of the law of 1832 is in these words:

"The President and Directors of the New-York and Harlem Railroad Company are hereby authorized and empowered, with the permission of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of New-York, to extend their Railroad along the Fourth-avenue to Fourteenth-street, in the said City, and through such other streets in the said City as the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the said City may from time to time permit, subject to such prudential rules as are prescribed by this act, and as the said Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, in Common Council, may prescribe."

In January, 1860, an act was passed by the Legislature, entitled "An act relative to Railroads in the City of New-York." The first section of this act is in the following words:

"It shall not be lawful hereafter to lay, construct, or operate, any railroad in, upon or along any or either of the streets or avenues of the City of New-York, wherever such railroads may commence or end, except under the authority and subject to the regulations and restrictions which the Legislature may hereafter grant and provide. This section shall not be deemed to affect the operation, as far as laid, of any railroad now constructed and duly authorized. Nor shall it be held to impair in any manner, any valid grant for, or relating to any railroad in said City, existing on the first day January, eighteen hundred and sixty."

The foregoing are all the legislative enactments that I have been able to find which have any bearing on or relevancy to the controversy that has arisen respecting a railroad in Broadway.

In this state of the legislation on this subject the Corporation of the City of New-York recently passed an ordinance or resolutions, granting to the New-York and Harlem Railroad Company the privilege of laying a railroad track through and along Broadway.

Without the aid of any learned legal disquisitions on the subject, it appears to me that the following inferences may fairly be deduced by the common sense of every intelligent reader, from the laws above quoted.

First—That the statute of 1832 made important and valuable grants to the New-York and Harlem Railroad Company.

Second—That the statute of 1860 was not designed to affect, and does not in any manner affect, the previous grant of 1832.

Third—That if any doubts on this point shall be created by the general provisions of the laws of 1860, such doubts must be wholly removed by the latter clause of this law as quoted above, which clause must have been inserted in the statute for the special purpose of saving to the Harlem Road and other roads, if any, that might be similarly situated, all the rights and privileges and grants that had been granted to them previously to 1860.

Fourth—That the authority to alter, repeal or modify the law of 1831, as provided in that statute, cannot, and does not give the Legislature any authority to repeal, modify, or alter the provisions of the law of 1832, above quoted.

Fifth—That the Corporation of the City of New-York, having passed an ordinance or resolutions, granting to the Harlem Railroad Company permission and authority to lay a railroad track in Broadway, the right of this Company, under these provisions of the statutes and corporation ordinances, cannot well be doubted.

It is not the purpose of this brief notice of the subject to call particular attention to the extraordinary and, I think, unprecedented, proceeding of Justice BARBOUR in granting an absolute injunction against the New-York and Harlem Railroad Company.

OBSERVER.

OPERATIONS ON THE MISSISSIPPI.

The Second Running of the Vicksburgh Batteries.

Six Gunboats and Twelve Barges Safely Past Vicksburgh and Warrenton.

A GREAT TRIUMPH.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 27.

The dispatches received by the President from Major-Gen. GRANT and Adjt.-Gen. THOMAS are dated before Vicksburgh, April 23. They announce that on the evening before six gunboats and twelve barges passed Vicksburgh and Warrenton batteries, which opened terrifically upon the vessels. Buildings in Vicksburgh prepared for the occasion were fired to light up the river, and enable the rebel gunners to see the boats. Over five hundred shots were discharged at the fleet. None of the barges were hit. Only one steamer was injured badly enough to cause her to be abandoned. She floated three miles below Warrenton, where she grounded; but all hands on board of her were saved. Another steamer was somewhat injured, but can easily be repaired. To the credit of the troops be it said, when some of the crews of the boats refused to take their chances in making the fearful trip, the former, belonging to the Illinois regiments, volunteered to do the boatmen's work, the crews having been left behind. The second splendid success of throwing a great land and naval force below Vicksburgh, completely flanking the rebel position, was accomplished with the loss of only two men mortally wounded, and a few more, not exceeding ten, severely and slightly wounded. The pilots were made the targets of by the rebel sharpshooters who lined the shore. The former, to prevent being splintered, in case they were wounded, had their pilot-houses removed, and exposed themselves to the enemy.

Gen. GRANT telegraphs to the President that he considers this movement, in view of its importance, the terrible fire to which the boats were exposed, and the slight loss of property and men, a magnificent success.

An Official Account of Selfridge's Cut-off Between the Mouths of the Arkansas and White Rivers.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 27.

The Navy Department has received a dispatch from Admiral PORTER, of the Mississippi squadron, dated Yazoo river, April 16, 1863, accompanied by a report from Lieut.-Commanding THOMAS V. SELFRIDGE, off Arkansas River, April 14, stating the arrival of the Curlew, Cricket, Rattler and Prairie Bird, and a ram. He says: "The cut-off above Alexandria made on Saturday last, I passed through on Sunday, the first steamer through. It shortened the distance between the two rivers at least ten miles, and enables me to concentrate our strength very completely."

Admiral PORTER sends the following:

MISSISSIPPI SQUADRON, YAZOO RIVER, April 16, 1863.

SIR: We have been threatened for some time past with an attack from the Arkansas rebels in steamers. Every provision was made to meet it. Lieut.-Commander SELFRIDGE saw the difficulty in defending the mouths of the Arkansas and White Rivers while kept so far apart by a useless neck of land, and proposed to me to cut it. I ordered him to do so, and he passed through with his vessels twenty-four hours after he cut the bend, thus saving a distance of over ten miles. The mouths of Arkansas and White Rivers are now brought close together, and a small force can defend both. One of the worst points for guerrillas is also cut off, as these pests of the human race could from the isthmus attack a vessel on one side and be ready to meet her on the other as she came round—the distance being ten miles round and half a mile across. I have force enough at Arkansas and White Rivers to prevent any attack

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher's European Tour.

MEETING OF PLYMOUTH CHURCH SOCIETY.

There was quite a large and very agreeable meeting of the members of Plymouth Church Society, in the lecture-room of the church, last evening. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing and deciding upon the proposition to grant the pastor, Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER, leave of absence for four months for a tour in Europe. The meeting was presided over by the Moderator, H. B. CLAFLIN, and R. D. BENEDICT, Esq., the Society Clerk, recorded the proceedings. The following resolution was read, and after brief remarks from several members, was adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That our Pastor be granted leave of absence for four months from 1st of June, or at such earlier period as may best suit his convenience, for the purpose of making a visit to Europe; that his salary be continued, and his necessary expenses and the supply of the Pulpit during his absence, be paid by the Society.

When the above had been adopted there was a conversational discussion of the probable usefulness of keeping the church open during the month of August, which terminated in a vote in favor of holding services in the church as usual during that month. The meeting then adjourned.

The Broadway Railroad.

A gang of 50 or more men, in the employ of GEO. LAW and the other grantees of the "Belt Railroad," were hard at work on Sunday, laying track from the South Ferry up Whitehall-street and past Bowling-green, so as to make a connection with the track running down State-street. With the exception of the space upon which the Harlem Railroad commenced their labors the other evening, the entire length and breadth of Whitehall-slip is covered with a perfect cobweb of railroad track, turnouts, switches, &c. No new injunctions have so far been issued, and it is understood that papers are in course of preparation in behalf of the Harlem Company, by which it is hoped to set aside the injunction which prevented the execution of the plan of building the Broadway Road before the Albany scheme had become a law. Messrs. WM. CURTIS NOYES and CHARLES A. RAPPALLO have been retained to represent the Harlem Railroad Company, and it is understood that they will make application to Judge BARBOUR to dissolve the injunction to-day or to-morrow.

Barnum's Dogs.

The great showman has congregated a mass meeting of dogs at the Museum, and seems to have ransacked the antipodes for unique specimens of the canine fraternity. Such a collection of curious curs is unequaled. The mastiffs, terriers, pointers, poodles, setters and hounds, are on exhibition at all hours, without extra charge, and are well worth seeing. In order to accommodate the rush of visitors, Mr. BARNUM has been obliged to construct an additional entrance to the second saloon.

Arrest of the Pilot of the Keokuk.

The pilot of this iron-clad vessel passed through Philadelphia, last Thursday night, under arrest. In order that the rebels might capture her, he ran the vessel upon Morris Island. He is the same man who piloted the famous rebels, MASON and SLIDELL, through the blockade.

IMPORTANT FROM MISSOURI.

Defeat and Rout of the Rebels at Cape Girardeau.

An Attack upon Them while Retreating.

A Large Number of Prisoners, etc., Captured.

ST. LOUIS, Monday, April 27.

A dispatch from Col. POMEROY, dated Cape Girardeau, 10 A. M., says: "The enemy are moving off fast, and Gen. MCNEIL was starting in pursuit. There is no doubt but Gen. VANDEVER will strike him to-day."

Another dispatch from Gen. MCNEIL, some two hours' later, states that Gen. VANDEVER attacked the repulsed enemy last night, taking a large number of prisoners, horses, arms, &c. Gen. MCNEIL says: "I'm in pursuit of the flying enemy, who are retreating toward Bloomfield."

CAIRO, Monday, April 27.

The latest from Cape Girardeau says that fifty-five or sixty rebels were killed in the attack yesterday, and over two hundred wounded. Seventy-five horses were killed, and there is a prospect that MARMADUKE will be completely cut off.

THE CONDUCT OF THE WAR.

More of the Committee's Report—How the Soldiers Carry their Whisky—The Rebels have News of Gen. Butler's Removal.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 27.

Advance copies of the three volumes of the report and evidence taken before the Committee on the Conduct of the War, have just been furnished to the various correspondents of the Press.

These volumes make in the aggregate, 1,928 large octavo pages.

The first volume, bound, will be delivered to the House to-day, and the remaining volumes in a short time.

Only fifteen working days have elapsed since the copy was furnished to the Superintendent of the Public Printing. This added to the immense current work executed for all the Departments, meantime, will give some idea of the facility with which work is performed in the Government Printing Office

The third volume embraces testimony taken upon the following subjects: Hatteras Inlet Expedition, Port Royal Expedition, Burnside Expedition, Fort Donelson, etc., Capture of New-Orleans, Invasion of New-Mexico, Accomac Expedition, Battle of Winchester, March 23, 1862, Monitor and Merrimac, Protecting Rebel Property, Rebel Barbarities, Wounded from Front Royal, Va.; Convalescent Camp, Alexandria, Va.; Trade in Military Districts, Communicating Countersigns, Returning Slaves, etc.

It appears from a cursory glance at the document that Maj.-Gen. BENJAMIN F. BUTLER was asked whether intoxicating liquors are used in the army.

To this Gen. BUTLER replied as follows:

"They are, to a most woful extent."

As an illustration, Gen. BUTLER said:

"We used to send a picket guard up a mile and a half from Fortress Monroe. The men would leave perfectly sober, yet every night when they came back we would have trouble with them on account of their being drunk. Where they got their liquor from we could not tell. Night after night we instituted a vigorous examination, but it was always the same. The men were examined over and over again; their canteens were inspected, and yet we could find no liquor about them.

At last it was observed that they seemed to hold their guns up very straight, and, upon an examination being made, it was found that every gun-barrel was filled with whisky; and it is not always the soldiers who do this.

I ordered a search of the Adams' Express Company, and examined the packages sent to the soldiers by their friends, and, in one day, I have taken one hundred and fifty different packages of liquor from the trunks, boxes and packages sent to the soldiers by their sympathizing friends at home."

Gen. BUTLER says he took measures to suppress this abuse.

Capt. WILLIAMS, Brigade Commissary in Gen. BLENKER's division, said, in answer to the question as regards sobriety, &c.:

"I think there must be in that division not less than 15, and probably as many as 25 establishments where they sell liquor, lager-beer especially; and they all have whisky that they sell privately at the same stands. But lager-beer is the principal article they deal in; that they deal out in great abundance. It is all over the division. I do not think there is a tent in the division but what has more or less of it. All the sutlers keep it, and all the stands are crowded all the while.

I think it safe to say that you can go there any day in the week and find, on an average, 500 men in that division who you would say were unfit for duty—drunk enough to put the whole division to flight on the field of battle."

I know of no remedy in the world that you can devise, except to cut off liquor from officers and all; or to break up the division, separate the brigades, and put them in other divisions with good commanders.

If you were to separate them and put them in other divisions with good commanders—good sober officers—I think they would make good soldiers. The soldiers are all Germans. I do not think there are one hundred Americans in the whole division."

[The above are two of the most remarkable cases of excessive drinking, but it would be unfair to judge, by them, the morals of the army. Since the testimony was taken, more than a year ago, the liquor supplies have to a very considerable extent been abridged.]

It appears by the testimony of Maj.-Gen. BENJAMIN F. BUTLER, (Feb. 2, 1863,) that eleven days before Maj.-Gen. N. P. BANKS left New-York, it was known in New-Orleans that the former was to be superseded by him, and a bet of "one hundred to ten dollars" was made in a "Secesh Club Room" that within twenty days Gen. BUTLER would be relieved by Gen. BANKS.

Gen. WEITZEL's scouts brought in the same news from the Teche, and a "drunken broker," whom Gen. BUTLER had put on Ship Island for "three months," and who had served out his time there, came to Gen. SHEPLEY, as early as that day, and boasted of the fact of "Gen. BUTLER being superseded by Gen. BANKS."

Question by the Committee to Gen. Butler—Have you any means of knowing the cause of your removal?

Answer—I have no knowledge; I have asked everybody I have seen in Washington what I was removed for, and nobody has been able to tell me.

Lieut.-Col. Frank S. Fiske, of the Second New-Hampshire regiment, testified that he was informed by a Staff officer, about the 8th of February, 1862, that the enemy had cried out the countersign across the Potomac River before our pickets had received it. The countersign was "Chippeway." This was the day when the Pensacola was expected down. The supposed reason given for it was that it might have been taken from the telegraph wire.

"The information was telegraphed down to our division 'that the Pensacola would come down that night.' What the rebels cried out was, 'The Pensacola is coming down to-night, isn't she? Damn her we are ready for her! We have got your countersign—Chippeway.'"

The witness said he had no other theory by which to explain how the enemy obtained the countersign.

During the examination as to the engagement between the Monitor and the Merrimac, Capt. G. V. FOX, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, having been asked the question:

Did it ever occur to the Navy or War Departments before the Merrimac was prepared, to see whether it was not well enough to take Norfolk, shipping and all?

Answer—The matter of taking Norfolk has been talked over a great deal. The movement of Gen. Butler to take Newport's News was in reference to the ultimate possession of Norfolk. The President, at that time, was very much in favor of it, and it was believed that it could have been done then without any difficulty. I think there is a memorandum here from Gen. Butler, dated some time in the latter part of May, when he was down there, setting forth the feasibility of capturing Norfolk.

Question—How came that to fall through?

Answer—That I could not say; the matter was presented to Lieutenant-General Scott; I can give you my impression about it.

Question—Do so, if you please?

Answer—My impression is that the panic in regard to Washington, that occurred after the battle of Bull Run, blocked this enterprize, as it seemed to block every other enterprize that was proposed elsewhere. Gen. BUTLER had at one time got as high as 11,000 men down there, and they were still sending troops to him until this 'panic' here, when they were all taken from him except some 4,000 or 5,000 men.

Question—The ghost of Bull Run was in the way.

Answer—Yes, Sir, and it also put off DUPONT's expedition for two or three months. We could get no soldiers after that for any of our expeditions.

The Union State Committee and the Election of Speaker—Card from Senator Low.

NEW-YORK, Monday, April 27, 1863.

HON. H. J. RAYMOND—Sir: I observe in the TIMES of this morning, in its editorial notice of the proceedings of the Legislature, an unjust and unmerited attack upon the officers of the Union State Central Committee, in connection with the Speakership of the Assembly.

I shall assume that your purpose is not to intentionally injure or traduce the members of that Committee; but as your charges and inferences are entirely without proof or foundation, I respectfully ask that you will publish the following statement of facts which were sought to be given in evidecce and sworn to before the Committee, both by Mr. HARRIS and myself, but was ruled out as not relevant to the matters under consideration:

First, as to the nature of the transaction to which you allude. Several days after Mr. CALLICOT was publicly nominated for Speaker by the Union members, a creditor of his presented himself and demanded the payment of a claim against him, and, in the event of a refusal, threatened a public exposition of the matter. Mr. CALLICOT, being unable to pay the claim, sought legal advice as to what course he should pursue, and consulted HAMILTON HARRIS, Esq., to whom he had been recommended—a gentleman of the highest character and legal standing.

Mr. HARRIS, upon looking over the whole subject, advised him that he should pay the debt, and as he (CALLICOT) was unable to go to his home to raise the money at the time, he loaned him the amount, and took his note.

This is the whole transaction, as shown by any proof. It is claimed that Mr. HARRIS obtained this money from the Central Committee, of which he was a member, upon a draft drawn at that time for the same amount as the claim so paid. Of this I have only to say that the draft which was alluded to, but not given in evidence, was signed by me without any knowledge, belief or information that it was to be used for any other than the ordinary and legitimate expenses of the Committee.

That I had not the most distant idea that it was to be paid to Mr. CALLICOT or to Mrs. WOOD, his creditor. That it went into the hands of Mr. WEED, who was known to be opposing the election of Mr. CALLICOT, and who was, as I believed, unfriendly to myself, and was negotiated at Mr. CORNING's Bank—facts strangely at variance with the theory which you seem to have adopted.

I must also further say, in justice to Mr. HARRIS, that he has accounted to the Committee for every dollar which he ever drew from it, and that the whole amount has been applied in payment of clerk hire and printing.

I also wish here further to say—what I have not deemed it necessary to allude to, so long as these charges were confined to the publications of my opponents—that I never, at any time or place, spoke to Mr. CALLICOT, or was in his company, or had any conference, correspondence or communication with him, directly or indirectly, upon or in relation to any subject whatever, until after he was elected Speaker of Assembly, and never at any time in regard to any matters of a pecuniary nature.

I had hoped, and still trust, these attacks and criminations would be confined to our opponents, more especially when, as in this case, they are without foundation, and cannot serve any useful or public purpose. Yours, truly, H. R. LOW.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sunday, April 26.

Arrived, to-day, steamer Oregon, from Mexican ports.

Sailed, 26th, ship Rangoon, for Callao.

It is understood that the General Government has purchased a fleet of steamships here for coast harbor service, including the Washington and California from the Pacific Steamship Company, the Panama and Oregon from BEN. HALLADAY, and Herman from JOHN T. WRIGHT. The vessels were immediately razeed, and refitted for active service. The authorities have warned large dealers in arms and ammunition not to sell cannon without first informing them.

The Collector of the port astonished several large importing firms connected with recent fraudulent duty cases, by seizing their books, under the act of 3d of March last.

Seamen are scarce. Several ships for the East and Europe are detained by the difficulty of getting hands.

The Returning Regiments.

Great preparations are being made to receive with becoming cordiality the returning regiments of the Army of the Potomac. The Seventh, Col. VAN SCHAICK, and the Eighth, Col. SALM SALM, in both of which the Teutonic element predominates, may be expected to-day. The Fifth and Eleventh regiments, New-York State Militia, will certainly turn out to receive them. The Seventh and Seventy-first of this City, have also been invited to participate, and there can be no doubt that a large number of all classes of citizens will heartily welcome the braves to their homes in the metropolis. As the soldiers to arrive will come by the way of Aquia Creek on steamers, the time of their arrival cannot be definitely known. They will not, however, debark until the arrangements for their reception are complete. The officers will be entertained at the Steuben House. The men will be quartered temporarily at the Park Barracks, where every preparation has been made to receive them. The Eighth, it will be recollected, went out under command of Col. BLENKER, and both the Seventh and Eighth have distinguished themselves for a faithful performance of their duties.

A meeting of German merchants was held on Saturday afternoon, at the office of Mr. KUHNE, in Broad-street, when a Central Commitee, consisting of Messrs. Withaus, Wesendonck, Detmold, Von der Heydt, Napp, Frank and Ernst Bredt, was appointed to make necessary arrangements for the proper reception of all German volunteer regiments returning from the seat of war.

We received the following note late last evening:

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

The time when the Seventh and Eighth regiments, N. Y. S. V., will arrive here, cannot be exactly stated. On their arrival at the dock, however, a salute will be fired, and they will be received by the Eleventh regiment, N. Y. N. G., and other military and civic organizations. The procession will, under the direction of Col. LOUIS BURGER, move up Broadway and Park-row to City Hall, thence Broadway to Astor-place, and down Bowery to the Steuben House and Dramatic Hall.

THEODOR G. GLAUBENSKLEE,
Secretary Committee of Arrangements.

The State Pledged to Put Down the Rebellion.

The following are the resolutions passed by the Joint Convention of the Legislature on Friday last:

The people of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly in joint Convention, do hereby tender to these volunteers in the service of the United States their deepest gratitude for the sacrifices which these patriotic men have made in leaving their firesides and their employment at home, to sustain the honor and integrity of the Union.

Resolved, That we will uphold our arms in the field, and sustain at home the families and the rights and interests of our volunteers in the service of the United States until the Union shall be restored, and until the flag of the Union shall float again on every fort and in every harbor, town, city and hamlet in the States now in rebellion against the General Government.

Resolved, That the flags which have been this day presented by the Adjutant-General in the presence of the executive and legislative departments of this State, and which have been so gallantly borne in battle, be accepted and placed among the archives of the State in the Bureau of Military Statistics, now in charge of Mr. DOTY, and be preserved as memorials of the eternal vigilance which is the price of liberty.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

A report reached this City last night, that the Army of the Potomac was moving. If it is true, the public will soon know it.

Dispatches from St. Louis bring assurances of the complete failure of the rebel demonstrations in Missouri. Repulsed at Cape Girardeau, MARMADUKE, yesterday morning, commenced his retreat, followed by Gen. MCNEIL with his victorious troops. The flying columns of the rebels were intercepted by a National force, under Gen. VANDEVER, and again defeated, with the loss of a large number of prisoners, with horses, arms, etc. At last accounts the enemy were in full flight toward Bloomfield.

We have news from Tennessee of a dash of our cavalry upon a rebel post about eight miles south of Franklin, the capture of a considerable number of rebels, including several commissioned officers, and the seizure of a number of horses and mules, and destruction of medical and other stores. We have also a rumor that the rebel Gen. BRAGG has been shot and instantly killed, by BRECKINRIDGE, at Tullahoma.

We now have an official assurance from Major-Gen. GRANT that six additional gunboats and twelve barges ran past the Vicksburgh batteries on the night of the 21st, with the loss of only two men mortally, and about ten otherwise wounded. Gen. GRANT considers this a triumphant success.

We find the following paragraph in the Washington Intelligencer of yesterday: "We learn by an officer who left Fortress Monroe on Saturday morning that news received there from the South gave promise of another attack on Charleston on the 28th," (to-day.)

The Port Royal New South of April 18 gives much prominence editorially to the following paragraph: "The reinforcements now ordered, and on their way from the North will soon elevate this department to the first rank in public interest and military importance. We are not at liberty to give further indications, but this much is certain, that the gray-backs along the Southern coast are about to have some lively and interesting times."

The United States mail steamship Potomac, Capt. HOFFMAN, left New-Orleans at 8 o'clock on the morning of the 18th, direct for New-York, and arrived last night. Her news is no later than was published in yesterday's TIMES.

Rumors were current at Fortress Monroe, on Saturday, that our pickets on the Nansemond had been driven in, and that skirmishing had again commenced. Gen. DIX and Staff left for that locality in the afternoon. A supply of coal for the river flotilla was sent up in the morning.

The Leavenworth News of April 23 has news of another raid into Kansas. It states that Capt. DOWDNA, at Humboldt, reports the advance of 3,000 rebels on the southwestern border. The Osage Indians have, in part, allied themselves with the rebels, and are with them in this new movement. Every precaution has been taken at headquarters to ward off this attack.

Yesterday the fortifications in New-York harbor were inspected by Secretary CHASE, Gen. WOOL, Gen. SPRAGUE, Cols. DELAFIELD, HOWE, and others, the party having proceeded down the Narrows on the Winants for that purpose. Secretary CHASE made copious notes of what he saw. He will leave for Boston on Thursday.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Board of Aldermen met at 1 o'clock P. M. yesterday, when resolutions in regard to the death of Col. EDMUND C. CHARLES were presented by Mr. FROMENT, and adopted. The Mayor's Message, announcing that he had signed the Broadway Railroad resolutions, and giving his reasons for approving them, was received, read and filed. The Comptroller reported that the balance in the City Treasury on last Saturday was $2,601,776 55. A proposition to pave the Third-avenue with Belgian pavement, between Fifty-sixth and Eighty-sixth streets, elicited some debate. Some settled ratio of assessment upon property-owners and the City for this kind of pavement, Mr. FROMENT urged, should be decided upon. The Legislature, he said, reduced our appropriations for the work every year, and so kept the Croton Board from fulfilling the orders of the Common Council for laying the Belgian pavement. Meanwhile the expense of repairing the cobble-stone pavement amounted to about as much each year as was allowed for putting down new pavement. Mr. BOOLE wished to stop ordering any more Belgian pavement till it shall be definitely determined how much the City and the property-owners benefited by the improvement in each case shall respectively bear, for work had long been ordered far exceeding the amount of the appropriation for new pavement. Mr. HARDY showed that the work proposed to be done on Third-avenue was ordered by an ordinance passed in 1856, assessing half the cost upon the property-owners directly interested, and the remainder upon the City. The Board adjourned to 1 o'clock P. M. to-day.

The Board of Councilmen met at 4 o'clock P. M. yesterday. The Mayor's Message in reference to the Broadway Railroad resolutions was received, read and filed. The resolutions of respect to the memory of Col. CHARLES were concurred in. The resolution from the other Board, to increase the salary of the Inspector of Streets, Vaults and Areas, (HARRY HOWARD,) in the Croton Department, from $1,000 to $1,500 per annum—the increase to date from June 4, 1862—was amended by inserting Jan. 1, 1863, instead of June 4, 1862, and then concurred in. The Board adjourned to 4 o'clock P. M. on Thursday.

A mass meeting of the merchants, clerks, and those favorable to the cause of early closing, was held at the Brooklyn Academy of Music last evening. The house was crowded and the stage was filled with clergymen and prominent citizens. A band was also in attendance. Mayor KALFLEISCH presided, and addresses were made by Rev. A. A. WILLETTS, Rev. T. L. CUYLER, ABRAM B. BAYLIS, Esq., and Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER, all in favor of the early closing of stores.

The schooner Secretary, alleged to contain goods intended for transportation to one of the States in rebellion, has been seized in Philadelphia by Deputy Marshal JENKINS. The crew and such of the officers of the vessel as could be found were arrested, and are now in custody. Some of the goods with which the schooner was loaded were purchased at the sale of the cargo of the prize steamer Princess Royal, the other goods were obtained from Philadelphia merchants. The vessel had cleared for Port Royal, and her cargo is described in the Custom-house papers as sutlers' stores. Very little of it, however, it is said, would do for the army, a large portion of it being intended for women and children's wear. The entire cargo is represented to be worth from twenty to thirty thousand dollars. An investigation will show how far the suspicions entertained against the vessel are justified.

In the Court of Sessions, yesterday, before Recorder HOFFMAN, WM. HAWKSWORTH pleaded guilty to an attempt at highway robbery upon JAMES JOHNSON, on the night of the 11th inst., in Washington-street. JAMES DOWNEY, jointly indicted with HAWKSWORTH for the same offence, pleaded not guilty, and was tried and convicted. Both parties were remanded for sentence on Saturday. MARY MORAN pleaded guilty to grand larceny, and was remanded. JULIA HARRIS, alias MARGARET DUVAL, pleaded guilty to shoplifting from the house of CLAFLIN, MELLEN & Co., and was remanded.

There was a large and excited speculative business done on the Stock Exchange yesterday, at advancing prices. Gold Coin fell off 3½ ⅌ cent. in the afternoon, as compared with the price of Saturday night. closing a fraction under 150. Exchange, 165@166 ⅌ cent. Money easy, at 5 ⅌ cent. The Treasury received $2,500,000 to-day, of which over one-half was for the 5.20 year 6 ⅌ cent. Stock by conversion of currency at par.

A livelier business was transacted in Flour, yesterday, at firmer prices; and in Wheat at irregular rates. Corn was less active, but quoted higher. Moderate sales of Groceries and Provisions were reported—the latter closing heavily. Cotton was a shade dearer, and in fair request. Hay, Tallow, Petroleum and Whisky were pretty active at former figures. Other branches of trade presented no really new feature.

The cattle trade feels the effects of a surplus of animals last week and an over-supply this week. About 4,450 fresh bullocks were yarded at ALLERTON'S yesterday, which, coming in the height of the shad season, proved too many for the butchers, and prices ruled 1c. ⅌ ℔. lower than the prevailing rates of last week's market. Some of the afternoon sales were $10 ⅌ head less than the same cattle would have brought one week ago. Government agents took about 100 head, and graziers bought a few to feed. Prices ranged from 10c.@11c. for good cattle—a few of the morning sales were at 11½c. and even 12c., but nice steers were subsequently offered at 10½c., to weigh. Sheep are scarce and higher, well fed lots, bringing 10½c. ⅌ ℔. if unshorn.

The Democracy of New-York.

The Democratic members of the State Legislature have issued an address to their constituents. It is a pretentious document, and its main object, as was natural under the circumstances, is to assail the Administration. It rehearses, and makes the most of the proceedings at the election of Speaker, dwells with great emphasis upon the subject of arbitrary arrests, and denounces the attempt to establish banks under the authority of the United States within the jurisdiction of this State. It makes a faltering protest against the Conscription law of Congress, and dwells with just pride upon the patriotic spirit which has led this State to place its men and its money at the command of the National Government for the defence of the National flag. The Democrats are not warranted, it seems to us, in attributing the passage of the Conscription bill to any distrust on the part of the National Government of the patriotic spirit and devotion of the people. They have the right, however, to protest against it, and we accept their appeal to "the ballot-box, the judicial tribunals and the other organs of the sentiment of a free people," as the proper means of securing redress for any wrongs they may think they have sustained.

The Democrats complain, with great reliance on public credulity, of the formation of "Loyal Leagues" and the adoption of the word loyalty as a test of public duty in the present crisis of our affairs. In the time of the Revolution, they urge, the Tories were the Loyalists; therefore all who profess to be loyal now must put themselves on a level with the Tories of that day. This is very absurd and very silly. If these persons believe that it is wrong to be loyal to the Government of the United States in 1863 because it was wrong to be loyal to the King of England in 1775, they are too ignorant for the proper performance of any civil duty; and their presentation of such an argument as this is a rash experiment on the credulity of those whom they address.

The main part of this document, however, contains much that commands our hearty approval. The address tries very hard to fix upon the Administration the charge of seeking a dissolution of the Union:

> "The incapacity and imbecility shown by those in command of the war present an aspect of calamity less appaling than the idea that the same weak hands and perverse minds shall undertake the accomplishment of a peace, upon the basis of a permanent separation of these States.
> That is now the growing apprehension of the popular mind! It is notorious that the Abolition leaders boldly hold out this as the probable alternative of war. The men who have dictated with most authority and influence the policy of the Administration, hardly affect to conceal that they will be content with this consummation. The conduct of the war leads directly to such an end. The division of armies, the removal of Generals, the attempt to introduce politics into the army, the coercion of opinion, the movements to break down the resisting power of the North, all point to this.
> Such a conclusion to the Abolition policy, the Democracy of New-York, in their first State Convention held after the outbreak of the war, anticipated and denounced. They protest against it now; and they invoke all the energies of the free people of the North against a political faction which having artfully initiated a fratricidal war, proposes now to end it by a parricidal peace."

This charge against the Administration is baseless and absurd. But the protest of the Democracy against such a separation is patriotic and reassuring. It indicates a wholesome change of Democratic sentiment, since the day when Gov. SEYMOUR declared in Tweddle Hall that "successful coercion would be no less revolutionary than successful secession,"—and when prominent members of the Democratic party declared themselves in favor of letting the Southern States go in peace. We join the Democracy in their protest against any such result: and if we find the Administration seeking at any time to bring about a peace on terms involving a separation, we will join the Democrats in the attempt to eject them from office, and to put in their place men of firmer purpose, and better instructed as to the welfare and wishes of the American people.

Meantime we are confident that the fears which the Democrats affect as to the purposes of the Administration, will vanish with the party emergencies that gave them birth. Indeed, we do not believe they have any serious apprehension of such results. If they had, they would scarcely proceed to proclaim their purpose to sustain the Government as they do in the following paragraph from the address:

> "In the midst of the surrounding gloom, with a desperate struggle forced upon us, the duty of the Democracy of New-York can be clearly discerned. It is to furnish to those in authority all constitutional means for the successful conduct of the war till the armed force of the rebellion—the object and aims of which we heartily condemn—is broken, and to struggle persistently against a dismemberment of the Union. We must cling to the Union and stand by the Constitution, and uphold the cause of law and order. We must save our own noble State from anarchy, while we maintain with constancy and patience its inalienable rights of sovereignty and independence. While the elective franchise is left free and the courts of justice are maintained in their functions, we must trust to them for the vindication of political and personal rights. We must support the Administration in all constitutional measures to suppress rebellion; we must even uphold it in its functions, lest, in its imbecility of judgment and lack of moral courage, it sink out of existence before the appointed day of its expiration; lest we should realize by its death, as we have by so many acts of its life, the fearful calamity of the disorganization of the very form and function and framework of our Federal system. If we do this—if we are firm and constant, patient and reliant upon the Providence of God to overrule the follies of men, we shall yet save the Republic."

This is loyal and patriotic. Making due allowance for differences of opinion as to specific measures of policy, and for the natural interests of an opposing party, it is, perhaps, all we have a right to expect at the hands of the Democracy of this State. If that party will adhere to the spirit of these sentences, and in good faith do what they thus pledge themselves to undertake, we have no fears for the success of the rebellion, and no doubt as to the speedy restoration of the flag and authority of the National Government.

Progress of Emancipation in Missouri.

As the State of Missouri was the first to feel the shock of war, and the first to suffer its most blighting ravages, so is it likely to be the first to emerge from the slough of Slavery, and enjoy the liberty and prosperity that the war was needed to produce. Long before the commencement of the rebellion, it was foreseen by all intelligent citizens that Missouri would eventually be free. But, notwithstanding this fact, no present benefits resulted to the State. Its mines remained unopened, its fields untilled, and its railroads uncompleted. The best of property had only a nominal value, and the sellers always were largely in excess of buyers. Slavery might be doomed, but it still existed, and might exist for generations; and that was too long to afford any encouragement to investment in Missouri property, or emigration to the State.

All this is changed. The shock of war has changed it. And since the revolution has come, bloody and violent, it is easy to see that nothing less terrible would have sufficed to overthrow the Slave system in Missouri. The fierce fight made by the rebels for the State in the beginning; the great numbers of guerrillas that have sprung up in and infested every district, after the rebel armies were driven from its borders; and the frequently renewed but ineffectual attempts at reinvasion, invited notoriously by resident disloyal persons—all serve to show how deeply rooted were Pro-Slavery prejudices in the State, and how impossible it would have been, by political appeals or moral suasion to dislodge Slavery from Missouri in our day and generation.

The advance of Missouri toward the condition of freedom has been amazingly rapid since the first clash of arms on her soil. A little over two years ago an election was held to choose delegates to a State Convention, to determine the course of Missouri in the impending crisis. The Secessionists were sanguine enough to think the State would "go with the South." But the polls showed a majority of overwhelming thousands for the Union. Not a "Secessionist" was elected to the Convention. But it was an equally proud and ostentatious boast of the leaders and Presses of the State, that not a single "Abolitionist" was elected. The cause of emancipation got no encouragement from the Convention that deposed CLAIB JACKSON, the apostate Governor, and his rebel Legislature, and pledged the State of Missouri to the Union.

If we come down later, to the time last year when President LINCOLN, with the approbation of Congress, made a formal offer to cooperate with any State in the emancipation and colonization of its slaves, we find that the representatives of Missouri were not prepared to accept the proffered aid. It was not until the election for a new Legislature, last Fall, that the people of Missouri astonished themselves, we believe, no less than they did the rest of the nation, by choosing a large majority of Emancipationists.

By the terms of the present Missouri State Constitution, it is impossible for the Legislature to enact an emancipation measure without providing compensation for slaves. Missouri is not able to buy the slaves within her borders, and Congress refused the appropriation asked for to aid the State. Here appeared a baulk in the desiderated work—the abolishment of Slavery—and for a time the Emancipationists were discouraged. The more radical were for revolutionary measures, the crushing out of Slavery at a blow, by the application to Missouri of the President's Proclamation against rebel States. But this was too harsh and inconsistent a proceeding against a State that had always been loyal. In this emergency Gov. GAMBLE has called together the Convention elected two years ago, which has never been disloyal, and under whose authority the present State Government exists, to fix upon an Emancipation policy. The Convention can amend the Constitution so that the Legislature may without difficulty act upon the question; or, what is more likely to happen, the Convention itself may proceed to inaugurate a system of emancipation.

We regret to see the "radical" Emancipationists assailing the act of Gov. GAMBLE and the proposed meeting of the State Convention. They profess to fear that the Convention will prove too conservative, and fix Slavery upon Missouri for a quarter of a century to come, by adopting some exceedingly gradual system for its removal. The Convention might do great harm to the State by such a course, but there is no good reason for supposing its members will be so blind to the welfare and prosperity of the people as to do any such thing. The Convention was progressive enough in expelling a traitorous State Government from its seat, and it can reasonably be trusted to deal with the arch-enemy, Slavery.

It would certainly be a great mistake for the Convention to postpone for ten, or even five years, the operation of a very sweeping and efficient emancipation act. There are millions of dollars in money, and population by the hundred thousand, ready to pour into Missouri when it is a Free State. But the State must be substantially free, not prospectively so, before the tide will set in. If Slavery could fall to-day, in Missouri, there is not a man in the State that would not be richer one year hence than he is now. Emancipation, immediate and total, would be a stupendous stroke of political economy for Missouri. And it would have an effect in another direction that the Convention should think of—it would relieve the State at once of the rebel incursions that periodically disturb and devastate it. It would forever dissolve the foolish dream of STERLING PRICE and the rebels that he is to recapture the State and annex it to the Southern Confederacy. Make Missouri a Free State, and from that moment it becomes an apple of Sodom to the South—something to spit out and to be avoided.

WHERE WERE THE COPPERHEADS?—The brief series of resolutions on the army and the war, which were adopted by acclamation by the State Legislature, on Friday, were perhaps not as comprehensive as might have been desired; but the two great merits appertain to them that they reach the main point very directly, and that they were adopted unanimously. The second resolution pledges the State of New-York to uphold the National arms in the field, "until the Union shall be restored, and until the flag of the Union shall float on every fort, and in every harbor, town, city and hamlet in the rebel States."

We do not learn where the terrified members of FERNANDO WOOD'S great and unterrified peace and secesh Copperhead party concealed themselves during the proceedings that ended in the passage of these patriotic and warlike resolutions. Copperheadism for a time was very belligerent hereabouts—not against the rebels, but against our own Government. It was going to coerce and carry with it the State of New-York, its officers, its Legislature, its military quota, and its people. It has carried none of them. Its backbone, if it ever had one, seems to have been pretty thoroughly broken. FERNANDO WOOD'S Mozart Hall speech, it appears, was the Copperhead's last gasp.

A GOOD IDEA.—We have already had news of the valiant and successful movement of Gen. DODGE, the commandant at Corinth, against the rebels in North Mississippi, whom, after a severe fight, he routed and drove "from Bear Creek to Crane Creek." Since the fight, the rebels have said very little about it, so far as we know; but a telegram sent from Mississippi, and published in the Richmond papers, in telling of the advance of the expedition, described it as comprised of a "heavy force of Yankee cavalry." It was not, however, a cavalry, but an infantry expedition; and the following extract from a private letter of an officer engaged in it, written on the eve of its starting, will show the origin of the rebel mistake, and will furnish an excellent idea in connection with such operations.

> "I expect within a day or two to be out on an expedition, the character of which I surmise to be raid. Our regiment is all mounted on mules, and a pretty flapping of ears I assure you there is. We are called the "Jackass Brigade" by those who don't admire us, but we claim to be Mulish Lancers. However, I tell you this is the true mode of fighting these fellows down here. Celerity of movement is indispensable, and although it is no part of our intention to fight on the backs of these long-eared quadrupeds, they will carry us as many miles in a day as horses, and then we are fresh with our infantry drill, wherein we claim to beat 'em all."

Amusements.

WINTER GARDEN.—Mr. J. S. CLARKE commenced an engagement at the Winter Garden last night, appearing in "Luck, or the Gentleman of Nature," and a revized edition of "The Toodles." The first piece was rendered, by the really fine acting of Mr. CLARKE, a positive success. Without intrinsic merit as a dramatic work, it affords the chief comedian an opportunity to create an original character, and this is a faculty which Mr. CLARKE possesses to an extent unrivaled by any performer of the day, excepting, perhaps, Mr. JEFFERSON. He endued the piece with life and substance, and fairly forced it into the estimation of his audience. In "The Toodles" he had already established a great reputation, even when the humorous portion of it was overlaid by a great deal of stupid melodrama. This stupid element has now been entirely dispensed with, much to the satisfaction of all who may in future seek to derive enjoyment from its representation. Mr. CLARKE can now revel in the eccentricities of artistic intoxication and develop all the comic phases of conjugal bickering, without any disagreeable interference from quarrelsome brothers and misplaced churchyard sentiment. He takes every advantage of the opportunity thus afforded him, and gets called out between the scenes twice, to a dead certainty, besides narrowly escaping two or three encores. He will, undoubtedly, attract crowded houses for as long as it pleases him to remain in the City.

MR. CASTLE'S CONCERT.—Mr. WM. CASTLE, the accomplished and successful tenor, who has, during the present season, made so marked an impression at the various concerts, in which he has taken part, this evening gives a grand concert at Irving Hall. He will be assisted by Madame GUERRABELLA, Madame D'ANGRI, Mr. S. C. CAMPBELL, Mr. J. R. THOMAS, Mrs. MARIE ABBOTT and Mr. THEODORE THOMAS—Signor ABELLA acting as conductor. The programme is unusually rich and varied, and a brilliant and fashionable audience will be sure to generously bestow its patronage on an artist of so much promise and positive ability.

Proclamation.

WHEREAS, The President of the United States, in compliance with a resolution of the Senate, has issued his Proclamation setting apart Thursday, the 30th day of April, 1863, as a day of national humiliation, fasting and prayer; and, whereas, the scourge of civil war which is now desolating our country, and changing many of its happy homes into abodes of sorrow, renders such solemn service peculiarly appropriate at the present time:

Now, therefore, in official recognition of said Proclamation, and its just and timely admonitions to the nation, I do hereby request that all the public offices in this City be closed on that day, and that the people, refraining from all secular pursuits, devote themselves with humble and contrite spirits to the religious duties suitable for the occasion.

L. S.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Mayoralty, at the City Hall in the City of New-York, this twenty-seventh day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

GEORGE OPDYKE, Mayor.

MONETARY AFFAIRS.

MONDAY, April 27—P. M.

The Weekly Averages of the Banks of the City of New-York, on Saturday, April 25, 1863, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous exhibit of April 18:

In Sub-Treasury	12,342,752	15,251,163	7,988,362

The Bank return this afternoon shows a further large accumulation of Deposits. The stock of Specie is also up again, notwithstanding over a million of dollars was paid into the Treasury for Customs during the week. The Loans are increased about a million and a half, chiefly on Treasury paper and to the Stock Brokers. The Money market opens easy this week, at 5 ⅌ cent. as the rule of the Street, with exceptions as low as 4 ⅌ cent. and as high as 6 ⅌ cent. The prevailing temper on the Street in reference to both Stocks and Money is one of great buoyancy. The circle of speculation on the Share list, particularly, is rapidly widening. The price of Gold Coin has fluctuated violently between 154 and 150 ⅌ cent., closing at 4 o'clock about 2½ ⅌ cent. lower than on Saturday night. Exchange on London for the Boston steamer of Wednesday opened at 167½@168; but was quoted, after the decline in Gold, at 165@166 ⅌ cent. The Treasury Office in this City received to-day $1,000,000 on Deposit, at 5 ⅌ cent.; $1,300,000 for the New Loan, and $178,000 for Customs.

At the Stock Exchange, this forenoon, the demand was strong at advancing prices, all through the official list. The Government Stocks and Treasury paper were ¼@½ ⅌ cent. higher, and the City Bank Shares and Railway Mortgages unusually strong. When the Railway Share list was reached, New-York Central lead off at an advance of 1 ⅌ cent., and Erie was greatly excited at an additional rise of 2½@3 ⅌ cent. About 9,000 shares were sold on the first call. Erie Preferred rose 1½ ⅌ cent., and the Western shares followed with a pretty general advance on very heavy sales. Harlem was firm at 70@69¾, and subsequently at the Public Board at 1 o'clock, and on the Street, sold up to 73@73½ ⅌ cent., returning to 72½@72@70, in the afternoon. The transactions in Cleveland and Pittsburgh, during the day, were not less than 20,000 shares, at an advance of 3@4 ⅌ cent. on Saturday's sales.

The quotations on the general market, at 4 o'clock, were about as follows, as compared with Saturday night:

Costiveness.—No person can feel well while a costive habit of body prevails, and no one can expect to enjoy health permanently who permits it, for it is contrary to the economy of the system, and gives rise to a goodly proportion of the ills which afflict the human race. To neglect it, therefore, is to insure ill health of greater or less duration; yet, in attempting its removal, discrimination with regard to the remedies to be used is requisite. Violent purgatives temporarily remove obstructions, weaken the bowels, and reduce the strength of the patient, and are followed usually by greater constipation, rendering another and another dose necessary, until even the strongest purgatives lose their effect, and the patient's condition becomes deplorable. What is required is a gentle purgative—one having some action on the liver, and one that can be taken daily without impairing the strength of the patient, or injury to the system, until the tendency to constipation is removed. But few remedies have been found to meet these requirements, and of these few probably none have been so successful, as demonstrated by many years' use, as Dr. D. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS. They are usually taken every night at bedtime, causing, in proper doses, no inconvenience during the night, and producing no sickness or unpleasant effect during the day, so that persons may follow their usual avocations, whether of business or pleasure, in the same manner as if they had not taken the Pills. Their good effect will begin to be obvious after a week or two's use, particularly in greater clearness of mind, and an increased energy and disposition to work and to enjoy life, and their continued use in the restoration of the health to the patient. Sold by KITCHEN, TYLER & CO., and at retail by Druggists generally.

DEAFNESS
NOISES IN THE HEAD,
Diseases of the Eye, Ear & Throat,
CATARRH CURED
BY
DR. VON EISENBERG.

From the Journal of Commerce.

EXCITING NEWS FOR THE DEAF.—An instrument called Dr. Von Eisenberg's Air Passage Expander and Regulator, a gigantic machine, weighing nearly five hundred pounds, about five feet in height, a most wonderful apparatus for restoring sight and hearing, has just arrived for Dr. Von Eisenberg, the celebrated Oculist and Aurist, and will be on exhibition at the Doctor's office, No. 816 Broadway, for a few days previous to its use. The instrument is constructed decidedly on the most scientific principles. To give a detailed description would require a greater space than we can now spare. Our Oculist and Aurist seems to do everything in the line of his profession on a gigantic scale. The new instrument for restoring hearing to the deaf and sight to the blind is so constructed that it cannot fail to open the most obstructed air passages. His new consulting rooms, No. 816 Broadway, are correspondingly magnificent, and his practice as Aurist and Oculist large and eminently successful.

From the New-York Evening Express, Feb. 14, 1863.

SENSATION AMONG THE DEAF.—The unrivaled skill of Dr. Von Eisenberg, the far-famed Oculist and Aurist, of No. 816 Broadway, has made quite a sensation among the Deaf and Blind by his wonderful cures, which attract the Deaf, Blind and those suffering from Chronic Catarrh, from all parts of the Union to his office. The number of his certificates of really wonderful cures swells daily. For the benefit of sufferers, we submit the following, which requires no comment:

NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR,
No. 13 Livingston-st., Brooklyn.

NEW-YORK, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CARROLL J. POST, No. 28 South-st.

No. 188 MERCER-ST., NEW-YORK.

J. E. VON EISENBERG, M. D.—Dear Doctor: I have been afflicted with total deafness, and was induced to pay you a visit. No one can imagine my delight when, after one operation, my hearing was suddenly, and without pain, restored to me, for which I feel very grateful. After being totally deaf—almost shut out from the pleasure of using so necessary a sense—to have it returned, and to hear so distinctly, reflects great credit on you for the immense amount of skill you possess. I beg to thank you for what I can so truly appreciate. I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.

NEW-YORK, Nov. 6, 1862.

DR. VON EISENBERG—Dear Sir: Before taking leave of you, after your most successful operation on my ear, allow me to express my sincere thanks that, by your scientific surgical performance, I am enabled to hear distinctly, and enjoy a pleasure of which I have long been deprived—over a year. May you be rewarded by being enabled to perform many similar, to benefit other sufferers, and to your own emolument.

Allow me to present my kindest regards, and assure you of my grateful remembrance. Respectfully,

A. McDONALD REYNOLDS,
Captain Marines, United States.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.
READ

NEW-YORK, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

Which are the evidences of
LIVER COMPLAINT AND DYSPEPSIA.

It is estimated that seven-tenths of all adult ailments proceed from a diseased and torpid liver. The biliary secretions of the liver overflowing into the stomach poison the entire system and exhibit the above symptoms.

After long research, we are able to present the most remarkable cure for these horrid nightmare diseases the world has ever produced. Within one year, over six hundred and forty thousand persons have taken the Plantation Bitters, and not an instance of complaint has come to our knowledge!

It is a most effectual tonic and agreeable stimulant, suited to all conditions of life.

The reports that it relies upon mineral substances for its active properties, are wholly false. For the public satisfaction, and that patients may consult their physicians, we append a list of its components.

CALISAYA BARK—Celebrated for over two hundred years in the treatment of Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Weakness, &c. It was introduced into Europe by the Countess, wife of the Viceroy of Peru, in 1640, and afterwards sold by the Jesuits for the enormous price of its own weight in silver, under the name of Jesuit's Powders, and was finally made public by Louis XVI., King of France. Humboldt makes especial reference to its febrifuge qualities during his South American travels.

CASCARILLA BARK—For diarrhea, colic and diseases of the stomach and bowels.

DANDELION—For inflammation of the loins and dropsical affections.

CAMOMILE FLOWERS—For enfeebled digestion.

LAVENDER FLOWERS—Aromatic, stimulant and tonic—highly invigorating in nervous debility.

WINTERGREEN—For scrofula, rheumatism, &c.

ANISE—An aromatic carminative; creating flesh, muscle and milk; much used by mothers nursing.

Also, clove-buds, orange, carraway, coriander, snake-root, &c.

S. T.—1860—X.

Another wonderful ingredient, of Spanish origin, imparting beauty to the complexion and brilliancy to the mind, is yet unknown to the commerce of the world, and we withhold its name for the present.

IMPORTANT CERTIFICATES.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 28, 1861.

Messrs. P. H. DRAKE & Co.: I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia for three or four years, and had to abandon my profession. About three months ago I tried the Plantation Bitters, and to my great joy, I am now nearly a well man. I have recommended them in several cases, and, as far as I know, always with signal benefit.

I am respectfully yours, Rev. J. S. CATHORN.

will cause the hair to grow in the most luxuriant manner. It is a sure preventive against baldness; prevents the hair from falling out or from turning premature gray. Will restore gray hair to its original color, by curing the disease of the scalp.

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify, that about eighteen months ago, I commenced using STERLING'S AMBROSIA. My hair was short, thin, and rapidly falling out. I had tried many Hair Tonics, Invigorators, &c., without receiving any benefit. Soon after using the Ambrosia, my hair ceased falling out, and commenced growing so rapidly as to astonish me. Now, my hair is thick, soft and glossy, and is five feet four inches in length—when let down, reaching to the floor. This wonderful result I attribute solely to the use of STERLING'S AMBROSIA, as since I commenced using it I have applied nothing else to my hair.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE NEW BOOK,

BY THE AUTHOR OF

"AMONG THE PINES."

Published this Day.

MY SOUTHERN FRIENDS,

A NEW WORK BY EDMUND KIRKE,

Author of

"AMONG THE PINES."

One handsome 12mo. volume, elegantly bound.

Cloth bound, price $1.

Paper covers, price 75 cents.

MY SOUTHERN FRIENDS,

By the Author of

"AMONG THE PINES."

The success that has attended the publication of "AMONG THE PINES," has been of the most extraordinary character. With Hugo's "Les Miserables," it stands as one of the great successes of the publishing season. Extravagantly praised by every one—both as the most truthful picture of Southern life ever written, as well as a work of great dramatic and powerful interest, it ranks confessedly as one of the marvels of American authorship, and it is not surprising that its sale has nearly reached the enormous number of 40,000 copies, within so short a period of publication.

The new book by the same author,

MY SOUTHERN FRIENDS,

While it possesses all the strength and truthfulness of its predecessor, has woven through it a narrative of intense dramatic interest—a charm that will insure for it a popularity exceeding even that of "Among the Pines."

THE TWO BOOKS,

MY SOUTHERN FRIENDS,

and

are the most graphic pictures of life at the South that have ever been published, and as such should be read and scattered broadcast throughout the whole country.

The North American Quarterly, in a twelve-page review of "Among the Pines," says: "The book is not a novel; yet it possesses the attraction of a highly wrought and powerful work of fiction. It has an intense and terrible interest in some parts of its story, and the scenes, incidents and characters are portrayed with uncommon graphic and dramatic power. Yet the work is not only not a regular novel, but we are assured that there is absolutely nothing fictitious in it, save in the alteration of a few names and dates. * * A very remarkable book."

AMONG THE PINES.

The New York Independent calls it "a book of striking and truthful portraiture of slave society; a powerful, and even painful story, and worth reading far more for instruction than for pleasure. The story is clear and terrible with the lurid light of the passions, miseries and violence, that grow out of Slavery."

AMONG THE PINES.

The Pittsburgh Gazette says "no work on Southern social life since 'Uncle Tom' has been given to the world which can at all be compared to Mr. Kirke's 'Among the Pines.' It is one of the books of the season, which is sure to be universally read, and which will live when much cotemporary writing will be forgotten."

AMONG THE PINES.

The appearance of this new work, by the author of "Among the Pines," has created anew a large demand for the "Pines," and Mr. CARLETON has now ready a new, larger and handsomer edition of this book uniform in appearance and price with MY SOUTHERN FRIENDS.

AMONG THE PINES

AND

MY SOUTHERN FRIENDS.

⁂ Copies of either of these books, in either style of binding, will be sent by mail free of postage, on receipt of price, ($1 for cloth bound, or 75 cents for paper covers,) by

AGENCY OF THE

NATIONAL (FIVE-TWENTY YEAR) LOAN.

OFFICE OF LIVERMORE, CLEWS & CO.,
No. 34 Wall-st., New-York.

We take this means of answering the numerous inquiries made of us respecting the United States Five-Twenty Loan, for which we act as agents.

Said Bonds bear six per cent. interest, payable semi-annually, in gold, on the first of May and the first of November.

Have twenty years to run, but being redeemable at the pleasure of the Government after five years, are designated Five-Twenties.

Are issued both in Coupon and Registered Bonds; the former in denominations of 50's, 100's, 500's, 1,000's; the latter in 50's, 100's, 500's, 1,000's, 5,000's and 10,000's.

The Coupon Bonds have coupons attached for twenty years, and are payable transferable to bearer.

The Registered are issued in the name of the purchaser, (whose name and residence are recorded on the books of the Treasury Department at Washington,) and are only transferable by signature, or power of Attorney, before an authorized Government official. The interest is collected in the same manner at the Sub-Treasury nearest the owner's residence.

Both principal and interest are payable in gold, as provided by act of Congress.

Are, (in common with all Government Bonds,) free from taxation by city, town, county or State; and the income derived therefrom is subject only to one-half of the United States tax levied upon incomes derived from other sources.

The privilege of conversion at par will cease on the 1st of July, 1863.

These Bonds are supplied by us at par and accrued interest in currency—interest commencing to the purchaser upon deposit of the money. Hence, the first coupon falling due, being stamped with the date of the issue of the Bond, will be fractional, instead of three per cent., like the succeeding ones.

Orders, by mail or otherwise, accompanied by draft on New-York, or current funds, will be promptly responded to. LIVERMORE, CLEWS & CO., Bankers.

CAUTION TO LADIES.

Madame RESTELL, Female Physician, No. 162 Chambers-street, deems it her duty to caution ladies against impostors, who appropriate her advertisements, word for word, merely substituting some ignorant and wholly irresponsible person as "Madame."

These persons have spurious "Female Monthly Pills" and other poisonous compounds to deprive the unwary or the easily duped, as well of their means as of their health.

That ladies may avoid these impositions, Madame Restell feels called upon to give this caution.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 12 Laight-st., near Canal, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and expense than any one can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much-neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks. Permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance, failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to DR. WARD, No. 12 Laight-st., the only place. Call, send or write.

Ward and Powers, the champions and kings of venereal diseases, possessing the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedies in the world, guarantee a perfect cure, or no charge, in from one to three days. Established in 1840. N. B.—Those who have used their preventives are never without. Send for a circular. To Ladies.—Dr. Powers' Periodical Drops are a safe and certain remedy for monthly irregularities. The above remedies sent by mail. The afflicted should read their circular. Postage free on receipt of a stamp. Cure warranted.

Banks and Bank Stocks—Transfer and Ownership.

SUPERIOR COURT—GENERAL TERM.

Before Justices Bosworth, Robertson and Barbour.

John Purchase vs. The Exchange Fire Insurance Company.—This action was brought to recover damages for a refusal on the part of the defendants to transfer to the plaintiff on the books of the bank five shares of its stock, which the plaintiff claimed to have obtained from one Wheaton, on the 28th of January, 1856. On the trial it appeared that the demand of transfer was made on the 23d of January, 1859.

The defence was, that during the intervening year, and prior to the alleged demand, a judgment had been recovered by a third party against Wheaton, proceedings supplementary to execution had been taken pursuant thereto; that a receiver of Wheaton's property had been appointed by the Court, and the stock in question sold and the proceeds applied toward the satisfaction of that judgment; and, further, that the stock then stood in Wheaton's name on the books of the Bank, and its officers had no notice prior to the demand, or any ownership or interest therein on the part of the plaintiff.

In reply the plaintiff sought to show that some time previous to the supplementary proceedings, to wit, in June 1856, Wheaton, in a casual conversation with the President of the Bank, mentioned that his stock had been sold to the plaintiff. This statement the President denied.

Upon such a conflict of testimony and considerable discussion as to the legal bearing of it, Justice Bosworth, before whom the case was tried, instructed the jury that, supposing it to be true for the purposes of this case, that Wheaton informed the President in June, 1856, that he had sold the stock in question to the plaintiff, it was for the jury further to determine whether the President remembered this fact at the time of the proceedings supplementary to execution against Wheaton, and if the jury did find that he did not remember it, then the bank must be protected, and, as a matter of law, was entitled to their verdict.

A verdict was rendered for the defendant. Case stated in the Times of June 28, 1862.

Appeal was taken by the plaintiff, and the Court now decided that it had no jurisdiction of the points raised on the appeal, or to hear it.

Wm. Fullerton and George Stevenson for plaintiff; A. S. Van Duzer for defendants.

United States Circuit Court.

The Court was opened this morning by Judge Nelson. No business was done but the hearing of some unimportant motions. The jury were discharged till Wednesday. The Judge announced that he should go to hold Court in Connecticut on Monday next, and should not take up the Appeal calendar till his return.

Whereas, The City of New-York is again called upon, through the representatives in the Common Council to mourn the loss of another of the patriotic sons of the Empire City, the gallant and chivalrous Colonel Edmund C. Charles, late commandant of the Forty-second New-York Volunteers, (Tammany Regiment,) is no more. He departed this life, on Saturday, the twenty-fifth instant, at his late residence, number forty-eight Bleecker-street, in this City, from the effects of wounds received at the battle of Glendale, one of the memorable engagements fought by the Army of the Potomac during the seven days' battles before the City of Richmond, Virginia; and

Whereas, It is the duty, as it is peculiarly the province of the authorities of this City, to bear testimony to the patriotic ardor and rare military abilities that characterized every act of the deceased while connected with the Army of the United States, and engaged in the work of suppressing the present unholy revolt of the Southern States against the integrity of the country and the perpetuation of the blessings of free Government, as bequeathed to us by the fathers of the Republic; even anterior to the breaking out of the present war, his military acquirements were known and appreciated; he was for many years Lieutenant-Colonel of the Fourteenth artillery, New-York State Militia, and was an honorary member of the "Light Guard," one of the best disciplined and most efficient City military organizations; and,

Whereas, The services rendered by the deceased, as Lieutenant-Colonel of the Twenty-fifth regiment, New-York State Volunteers, to which he was appointed in May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and which he held until raised to that of Colonel of the Forty-second New-York Volunteers, or Tammany Regiment, in November of the same year, of such a character as to elicit the commendation of the National authorities. He participated actively in the battles at Yorktown, West Point, Williamsburgh, and in fact in all the battles fought on the Peninsula, under General McClellan, until, on the fifth of the seven days' battles before Richmond, he was wounded and taken prisoner, and was confined for five weeks in Libby Prison; he was subsequently paroled and exchanged, and was ordered home for the purpose of recovering from the effects of his wounds. His ardent spirit could illy brook the restraint imposed upon him by his physicians, and ere he was fully recovered he again returned to his regiment, only to be again ordered home, in order to regain his health and recover from his wounds. But it was ordained otherwise. The Almighty, by one of his inevitable decrees, has seen fit, for His own wise purposes, to call from among us the brave and intrepid Col. Edmund C. Charles, and we have only to bow in humble submission to His will; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Common Council, do deeply and fervently sympathize with the afflicted family and relatives of the deceased soldier, and we tender them our sincere condolence in their affliction; and be it further

Resolved, That as a mark of respect to his memory, the members of the Common Council will attend the funeral of the deceased in a body, with their staves of office and wearing the usual badges of mourning; that the flags on the City Hall and the public buildings be displayed at half-mast on the day set apart for the funeral obsequies of the deceased, and that the masters and owners of the shipping, and the owners and lessees of public and private buildings and residences be and are hereby respectfully requested to display their flags at half-mast during the day; and be it further

Resolved, That the Committee on National Affairs of both branches of the Common Council be and they are hereby directed to take charge of, and make the necessary arrangements for, the funeral obsequies of the deceased soldier, on behalf of the Corporation of the City of New-York; and be it further

The Dogs at Barnum's are attracting crowded houses. The show of St. Bernards, Newfoundlands and English Greyhounds yesterday was very fine. A large number of very choice dogs were on exhibition. To-day the specialty is Setters, Pointers, Foxhounds, Beagles and Harriers, and many fine specimens have been entered for competition for the liberal prizes. In addition all the premium dogs of yesterday, and choice specimens of every other breed, will also be exhibited. See Museum advertisement.

The Attack Was Successful.—We do not refer to that upon Sumter, for the nest where treason was hatched still remains safe. But the rush to Knox's to secure his elegant Spring Hats has been very great during the past week, and all who participated in it came away delighted with the possession of a hat of unexcelled beauty and excellence. No. 212 Broadway is the place to obtain hats, most decidedly.
